

CONSTITUTION

NAME

CLADDAGH ASSOCIATION OF ADULT IRISH DANCE

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

To develop and promote adult Irish dancing for the purpose of social activities and enjoyment, with the opportunity to prepare for demonstrations at social gatherings as requested and competition.

To seek out further opportunities to continually promote the tradition of adult Irish Dance.

MEMBERSHIP

The association welcomes all adult newcomers on a quarterly basis, with or without experience.

The association is non-discriminatory and non-political and is open to all.

Members are asked to attend where possible whenever an official meeting of the association takes place.

Minimum age of 18

Welcome newcomers on a quarterly basis on the first Monday of each quarter - January, April, July, October (or the following Monday if that day is a bank holiday) and then weekly thereafter.

FEES

Class fees are £5.00 per week, payable by bank transfer.

Membership fee is £5.00 per annum, payable each year following the AGM and not later than the 31st March.

New dancers joining after the 31st March will not be required to pay the annual membership fee until after the next AGM.

No individual is paid for teaching the dancing. Class fees are collected for the purpose of the venue payment. Surplus money is used to benefit the whole group: i.e. for social activities and expenditures.

Notice of any proposed variation in these fees will be given in advance to all members.

TEACHING

Responsibility for teaching step dancing is shared between all the group attendees. Christine Mathewson is a registered ceili dance teacher and holds the TMRF qualification with 'An Coimisiun La Rinci Gaelacha – CLRG, this allows The Claddagh Association members to enter ceili competitions run by 'An Coimisiun'.
